WORLD CRUISE 2008

January 6–April 30, 2008
115 nights from San Francisco, California to Fort Lauderdale, Florida

Regent Seven Seas Cruises sets the standard for luxury on a grand scale. Perhaps that's why Regent Seven Seas was voted the #1 large-ship cruise line by the readers of Condé Nast Traveler.

The 2008 World Cruise Voyage will be the longest and most extensive in Regent Seven Seas' history, featuring a 115-night journey aboard the magnificent 700-guest, all-suite, all-balcony Seven Seas Voyager.

Designed to offer guests an ultimate travel fantasy, the itinerary encompasses 51 ports in 26 different countries spanning five continents. Departing January 6, 2008, from San Francisco, the cruise boasts 11 overnights and seven individual segments, each offering a fascinating collection of land adventures, special onboard lectures and activities. Explore an intoxicating mix of cosmopolitan cities, fascinating cultures and stunning landscapes. The circumnavigation will call on ports from Shanghai, Hong Kong and Mumbai to the Hawaiian Islands, New Zealand, Australia and Burma. Other highlights include a Mediterranean voyage, a visit to Bermuda and the addition of new ports such as Tunisia.

Note: Enjoy the benefits of the Mariner Club on World Cruise segments 1, 3 and 7.
